

COMMENT

This is a step forward for the radio service.
Adding more voice allocations will improve our chances of interference free communications and will also give some lesser class licensees a bit more room to operate.